

“They have complete command of international commercial arbitration and investor-state arbitration, and consistently give comprehensive, in-depth, sound advice.”

Chambers Global

Covington’s international arbitration team of more than 50 lawyers handles commercial and investment disputes under the rules of every major arbitration system in the world, under common law and civil law systems, in English, French, Spanish, and other languages. Our team combines advocates, former high-ranking diplomats and trade specialists, and lawyers with focused industry and substantive experience.
