FERRERE is the only multi-jurisdictional, purely South American law firm. It has 200+ attorneys throughout Bolivia, Ecuador, Paraguay and Uruguay and stands out for its US-style structure, methods and policies. FERRERE represents clients in arbitrations under, among others, ICC, AAA, LCIA, ICSID, UNCITRAL, ICDR, as well as local arbitration rules. FERRERE's fully integrated regional arbitration group also regularly acts as co-counsel and teams up with leading international law firms in complex cross-border and multi-jurisdictional disputes, anti-corruption matters, and commercial and investment arbitration proceedings.
